

Visitor Guidelines

Thank you for visiting Lunuganga, we hope you enjoy your time here.

Please help us in preserving this historic space by observing the following guidelines:

- All backpacks, equipment and large bags should be checked at the office.
- No outside food or beverages are permitted in the premises.
- Photography is allowed without flash or tripods; for non-commercial use only. The photographs taken at Lunuganga should not be sold, reproduced, distributed, or otherwise commercially exploited in any manner. It is the responsibility of the photographer to ensure that copyright permission is obtained for the use of Lunuganga photographs for commercial purposes. All press and photography inquiries should be directed to archive@gbtrust.net.
- Please do not touch or lean against any objects in the premises.
- Separate tickets are issued for Lunuganga Garden and No. 5 at Lunuganga; students with valid student IDs may purchase a discounted ticket.
- Cellular phones and other electronic devices must be turned on silent mode; the garden and its environs are a quiet space.
- Please be advised that visitors must exercise extreme caution as the grounds are slippery and may include the occasional serpent or crocodile visitor!
- The Lunuganga Trust takes no responsibility for visitors' personal effects.
- The Trust reserves the rights of admission and management of group sizes.
- The Lunuganga Trust reserves the right to ask visitors who do not cooperate with the above guidelines to leave the premises.
